

AHCA's website experienced technical difficulties Monday afternoon during the first webinar to brief members on the Requirements of Participation. If you were impacted by this, please accept our sincere apologies. In order to avoid a repeat of Monday's trouble, we have established a new registration link for Wednesday's presentation of the same webinar. Anyone currently registered for Wednesday, will be automatically registered to the new link. Please watch for an email from AHCA@comparters.com with your registration information.

Please click here if you have not yet registered for Wednesday's presentation.

Additionally, AHCA/NCAL Annual Convention attendees should be sure to join the half-day pre-session on the Requirements of Participation at the AHCA/NCAL Convention. The session is free with Convention registration.
